Fire Prevention Tips October 27, 2016 Fire Prevention and Issues in "fighting" a Model T Fire
Presentation at October 2016 general meeting by Paul Duncan and Neil O'Brien (edited for space by Linda Riel)

Fire Prevention:

The Best approach to Model T fire safety is to prevent them in the first place. An excellent discussion regarding fire prevention in a Model T garage appears on the Model T Ford forum in September 2012 and under the Title: Garage Safety. Fire Prevention.

The participants on the forum remind us that one should not have gas fumes around Model T's as there should not be gas leaking. Remember to install and use a gas shut-off valve in the gas line before the carburetor. Gasoline vapor is heavier than air and tends to stay low in the garage. It is prudent not to have open flame heaters or pilot lights in the garage area. Consider installing an electric water heater. Check your local codes for the proper location of furnaces in a garage where automobiles reside. Store flammable liquids in closed containers.

Putting Out a Fire

Neil emphasized that if one has a garage fire a call to 911 should be made immediately. Don't assume that you will be able to put out the fire with your shop extinguisher. He recommends at least a 5 lb ABC fire extinguisher. The letters indicate the type of material burning. The A stands for Trash, wood and paper. The B stands for flammable liquid fires. The C relates to electrical equipment fires. There also are rating numbers such as 2-A:10BC printed on the extinguisher and these indicate the "power" of the extinguisher. A 5 lb extinguisher is probably the smallest one should have in the garage. The small 2.5 lb extinguishers are often disposable and are convenient for size in the model T but have limitations. Neil showed a large extinguisher-10 pound +- he has in his shop.

Extinguishers should be checked regularly for charge and they should be periodically shaken to break up any crusting of the powder. Refillable extinguishers can be recharged in Albuquerque at a number of locations.

I (PRD) have visited two sites:

1. Safety Flare Inc. at 2803 Richmond Drive 505-884-2274. They both sell and will recharge and service existing fire extinguishers. They charge $7.50 to recharge a 2.5 lb unit (small) and $10.50 for a 5 pound unit.
2. Fire Safety Industries at 3428 Stanford NE (near Dean Van Doren's shop) 505-888-4494. They sell and service extinguishers and their prices are comparable with Safety Flare.

October is national fire prevention month. Please be safe.

The above information was taken off of our website.

The Enchantment Flyer is published monthly for the Tin Lizzies of Albuquerque for their viewing. If you have something you would like to submit, please contact Linda at 505 459 5897 or email lmrlulubell@juno.com

From the President:

Recently I have been thinking about community. What can the Tin Lizzies do for our community? At the last meeting several of our members had similar thoughts. We are going to use part of the money collected for the Christmas party to be donated to a local charity. I am very pleased that we can use our Model T hobby as a vehicle to help others in the community. Giving of our time and available resources to the people in the community can produce a feeling of joy in all of us.

Last week I had the opportunity to visit with one of our members, Don Lauritsen, who is currently residing at Casa Real in Santa Fe. During that visit, I also had the pleasure of talking to Don's 100 year old mom, Agnes, on the phone. Agnes was born in Highland Park, Michigan, home of the Model T and Agnes' father was involved in the construction of the Highland Park Ford plant.

During the remaining months of the year, I encourage everyone to think about what they can do to help others in the community.

Hello all! I am trying to set up a Saturday this fall perhaps around the end of October to run your cars on a dynamometer. I need to have at least 30 cars participating to negotiate a lower price.

A chassis dynamometer is a machine that you drive your car onto and it measures how much horsepower and torque your engine supplies to the ground. You will get a print out with the results. This is for fun and maybe bragging rights about your car. I am hoping to get the price below $60 per car. The more the better. This is open to any car you have. Modern or antique. I have 18 model A's and 2 modern vehicles signed up. We need some Model T's. Maybe a corvette, mustang, jaguar, ranger pick up, minivan.

Please call, email, some how get ahold of me so I can put you on the list. I will let you when I have a definitive date set.

Thank you.
